OFFICIAL UPDATE — THROUGH ROUND ROBIN WEEK 6

NEXT UP: TPC SOUTHWIND

GSPro course: "DPC South Breeze"

League Updates

Detroit is officially an off week. All Detroit scores, points, DQs and CTP results have been removed from the competitive record. Sedgefield is now the official Round Robin Week 6.

Final handicaps remain locked. They will be used for the remainder of round-robin play and the playoffs.

2-foot gimme circle remains in effect for now. See the league survey on Page 3 about whether we should remove the gimme circle entirely.

Weekly Highlights

Eric / Andre stay in command. A valid +3 gross round plus the 3-point Freddy / Chris forfeit pushes the Match Play leaders to 12 points.

Adrian / Alex keep the pressure on. Their -1 at Sedgefield earns another head-to-head win and moves them to 10 points, just two behind first.

Adam / Andrew take down the gross leaders. Their -1 gross / -1 net beats Paul / Chris, whose -3 handicap turned a +2 gross into +5 net.

Will D / Dad keep climbing. A +10 gross becomes +5 net, and Joey / Gerry's DQ gives Will D / Dad the win and 8 total points.

Sedgefield was unforgiving. Brian / Todd, Troy / Albert and Joey / Gerry all recorded DQs, creating a major shake-up in the weekly head-to-head results.

NEXT UP: TPC SOUTHWIND

GSPro: DPC South Breeze • Memphis, Tennessee

This Week's Course

TPC Southwind is the home of the PGA TOUR's FedEx St. Jude Championship. The real course is a par-70 championship layout known for water, demanding approach shots and small targets. We'll be playing the GSPro version listed as DPC South Breeze.

Course mindset: Stay patient, keep the ball in position, and don't let one bad hole turn into three. With locked handicaps and the head-to-head race tightening, every net stroke matters.

Should we remove the 2-foot gimme circle and putt EVERYTHING out?

■ YES — Putt everything out ■ NO — Keep the 2-foot gimme circle

Stretch-Run Reminder

Handicaps are locked. The standings are tight. Every match counts. Sedgefield is in the books, Detroit is an off week, and TPC Southwind is next. Good luck!

Scoring reminder: normal head-to-head win = 2 points • tie = 1 point • loss = 0 • scheduled opponent of Freddy / Chris = 3-point forfeit win.
